See Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 5.2.

I. BASIS FOR JURISDICTION

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation, and the amount in controversy is more than $75,000, is a diversity case. In a diversity case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

What is the basis for federal-court jurisdiction in your case?

III. STATEMENT OF CLAIM

Place(s) of occurrence: E FILING; NYSCEF; EDDS; EMERGENCY CT; VARIOUS NYS UCS' EMAIL ADDRESSES.

Date(s) of occurrence: FROM 6/6/2024 TO PRESENT DATE

FACTS:

State here briefly the FACTS that support your case. Describe what happened, how you were harmed, and what each defendant personally did or failed to do that harmed you. Attach additional pages if needed.

- 1) FROM 6/6/2024 TO PRESENT DATE, THE PLAINTIFF HAS BEEN SUBMITTING PAPERS TO NYS UCS STAFF FOR PROCESS, FILING, AND LITIGATION PURPOSE. HOWEVER NYS UCS' STAFF HAS AN UNWRITTEN (OR NON PROMULGATED) POLICY THAT THOSE WHO MAKE APPLICATION FOR CPLR 1101 (APPLICATION TO PROCEED WITHOUT PREPAYING FEES OR COSTS) ARE DENIED ELECTRONIC ACCESS TO THE COURTS TO MAKE CPLR 1101 APPLICATION (EVEN DURING TIMES OF DISABILITIES AND/OR SYMPTOMATIC COVID PERIODS WHEN THEY ARE BARRED FROM ENTERING THE COURT see Exhibit A within SDNY Exhibit A)
- 2) On 6/16/24, was my most recent filing I submitted to the defendants in efforts to correct this matter on the State level (see SDNY exhibit A (I incorporate all the attached papers herein this very paragraph)).
- 3) In response to my 6/16/24, the defendants sent plaintiff more rejections, denials, and deletions notices (see SDNY exhibit B) Also see end note attached direct to this complaint)
- 4) on about 6/10/24, After the Plaintiff's 6/6/24, Emergency Ct. application he made to the defendants' about NYS UCS' unequal access to the courts denial against CPLR 1101 APPLICANTS, he filed CPLR 1101 applications onto NYSCEF (see SDNY exhibit C.. that plaintiff too incorporate herein & into this matter).

5) All attached papers are a continuation of this instant complaint.

6) The Plaintiff is part of the following classes that may or may not be protected in this matter:

African/Native/Hispanic American (mother Afrcn/Native : father Afrcn/Hispanic); Army Veteran;

Formerly Incarcerated Person; Political Candidate (Multiple Elections); Zero income; Currently Medically Disable.

7) Closing, I briefly researched some other states and they appear not to deny litigants access to their e filing system because litigants are filing a waiver for fee request with their commencing papers; in fact neither do the Federal courts (see SDNY Exhibit D)

INJURIES:

If you were injured as a result of these actions, describe your injuries and what medical treatment, if any, you required and received. Computer Vision Syndrome; headaches; enhancement of CFS/PEM & TBI; unlawful detainig plaintiff to draft & litigate unneccsarily; social disassoc.;

EMOTIONAL AND MENTAL DISTRESS; LITIGATION DAMAGES; SOCIAL, BUSINESS, LEGAL

AND OTHER AFFAIRS DEPRIVATIONS DUE TO UNNECCASSARY TIME TOOK TO LITIGATE INSTANT MATTER (E.G. from HOUSING COURT; WILLIAMS V. DFS; WILLIAMS V. VERIZON;

WILLIAMS V. ASTOUND; WILLIAMS V. RICHMOND TOWING; INTELLECTUAL PROPERTIES -

NULIEPH FDA FILING (modtecpharma.com); donation contribution platform; Electronic environmental deviece development; acessory development for andriod & Iphones; inter alias projects/matters distracted.

IV. RELIEF

State briefly what money damages or other relief you want the court to order.

(1) Defendants policy that denies CPLR 1101 applicants access to e filing over turned

(2) Compel defendants to immediately accept Plaintiff's CPLR 1101 Application via electronic means to allow him to proceed in the e-filing the matter of Williams v. DFS, et.al., to NYS COURTS

(3) Grant the Plaintiff tolling and extensions of time for all deadlines and statutes of limitations that may have expired due to this instant unequal access to the courts matter;

(4) Order the defendants to award the plaintiff the $50M, he sought in the attached papers for reasons stated herein and in the attached papers and their underlying matter (Williams v. DFS, et.al..).

V. PLAINTIFF'S CERTIFICATION AND WARNINGS

By signing below, I certify to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief that: (1) the complaint is not being presented for an improper purpose (such as to harass, cause unnecessary delay, or needlessly increase the cost of litigation); (2) the claims are supported by existing law or by a nonfrivolous argument to change existing law; (3) the factual contentions have evidentiary support or, if specifically so identified, will likely have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation or discovery; and (4) the complaint otherwise complies with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11.

I agree to notify the Clerk's Office in writing of any changes to my mailing address. I understand that my failure to keep a current address on file with the Clerk's Office may result in the dismissal of my case.

Each Plaintiff must sign and date the complaint. Attach additional pages if necessary. If seeking to proceed without prepayment of fees, each plaintiff must also submit an IFP application.

I have read the Pro Se (Nonprisoner) Consent to Receive Documents Electronically:

☒ Yes ☐ No

If you do consent to receive documents electronically, submit the completed form with your complaint. If you do not consent, please do not attach the form.

END NOTE:

- 1) The Petitioner is far from being not familiar with this sort of obstruction of justice, misconducts, and tactics, as his countless litigations endeavors for decades & decades have been and still are usually prone to being subjected to obstructions of justice (from the petitioner's mailings never making it to court files ("trashcan filings"); him submitting hundreds of papers into court files, and when he actually get into courthouse to see files, he see only one piece of paper stored in file; papers being rejected for filing without receipts (then when he get in front of Judges he's denied relief or dismissed due to the absent of same papers that were rejected without receipt) et. al. sorts of litigation sabotages that allowed many injustices to occur against him, that still stand to this very day; that too caused generational deprivations and injustices similar to Amer. slavery, and Native Amer. persecutions (injustices that imposed invisible punishments & collateral consequences like dysfunctional family; systematic obstacles in building wealth; generational wealth GAP).
- 2) Its worth mentioning here that in the 2023 year litigation CPLR 1101 application that was denied by NYCEF (see above) for filing was in Suffolk county, however the Petitioner now discovered that Suffolk county do indeed accept online CPLR 1101 applications via NYSCEF (see <https://www.suffolkcountyny.gov/Elected-Officials/County-Clerk/Court-Actions-and-Court-Minutes/Court-Actions-Frequently-Asked-Questions/CIVIL-Frequently-Asked-Questions/Name-Changes>) thus making the Petitioner a class of one ("separate but equal") that was inherently treated unequal, singled out and segregated to subjected him and his family to an ongoing form of invidious discrimination (then delete it clean off the record for concealment).

VIA OSC
CPLR ART. 78,
& CPLR 3001

I, Jomo Williams, the Petitioner named in the above caption state the following:

- 1) This matter can not wait for tomorrow ; the denials of equal access to the courts in this matter has caused particular statute of limitations deadlines to file papers, to surpass, and jeopardizing others to also expire, thus infringing upon opposing parties rights to timely notice, and sabotaging (vandalizing) the petitioner's litigation efforts (and rights).
- 2) This instant matter is concerning inter alias, lack of, and conflicts within NYS UCS' administrative policies; court access denials; obstructions of justice; income & disability discriminations; civil rights violations; and State & Federal Constitutional rights violations;

3) Parties in this matter are

(a) All offices and departments of NYS UCS, who the Petitioner have been steadily emailing in his endeavors to have NYS UCS, file his papers for Judicial review (including but not limited to:

nyscef@nycourts.gov ;Emergency@nycourts.gov;
edds@nycourts.gov; ADA@nycourts.gov ; ig@nycourts.gov ;
cc-nyef@nycourts.gov ; newyorkef@courts.state.ny.us ;
SFC-HelpCenterNY@nycourts.gov);

(b) Other interested parties pursuant CPLR 7802(d), to this instant matter, are all named as respondents and OIP-s, within the case caption for Williams v. DFS, et.al.. (See the Case Caption Magnifier within Exhibit G)

4) It took the Petitioner months to draw litigation papers for the related matter of Williams v. DFS, et.al..; and became increasing indisposed in the process;

- 5) Being mindful of potential statutory deadlines, the petitioner hastened to complete his drawings and submission of Williams v. DFS, et.al., litigation papers.
- 6) During said completion period of the petitioner's papers, he developed a severe constant symptomatic covid like cough, and was too suffering from other discomforts, disorientations, and ailments brought on from being detained away drawing said litigation papers; thus he elected to use the NYS UCS' electronic filing system option; (see Exhibit B);
- 7) Around the June of 2023 (year) in a recent NYSCEF filing effort by the Petitioner, in an unrelated matter, the Petitioner was denied by NYSCEF to file CPLR 1101 application via NYSCEF; (See Exhibit A)
- 8) Thus in that 2023 (yr) matter, the Petitioner was overcharged around $400 - $500, dollars by NYSCEF, to file his papers;
- 9) Thus on 6/6/2024, due to the prior 2023 (yr) NYSCEF CPLR 1101 denial, the Petitioner first went onto NYSEF, to see if it changed policy by searching its FORM page for CPLR 1101, forms (none was present)

- 10) Thus on 6/6/24, he filed his Williams v. DFS, et. al., papers, with the NYS UCS Emergency courts, with an unequal access to the courts complaint attached to them;
- 11) On 6/6/24, The Emergency court only responded back with an auto email reply, and thereafter remained silent.
- 12) Thus after a couple days hearing no more response from the Emergency court, the Petitioner proceeded back to NYSCEF, to try to file papers; and discovered since the 2023 (yr) recent unrelated filing and NYSCEF's CPLR 1101 denial, that new provisions were placed further deep within the NYSCEF, online filing platform system (e.g. CPLR 1101 provisions and no fee auth letter, in drop down tabs).
- 13) Thus the Petitioner took advantage to utilize these new NYSCEF CPLR 1101, provisions to upload the Williams v. DFS, et.al., papers.
- 14) From around 6/9/24 straight to 6/11/24, the petitioner was subjected to all sorts of glitches, rejections, and other denials from the NYSCEF platform failures, in response to his efforts to file Williams v. DFS, et. al., with NYSCEF.

- 15) On 6/11/2024, the petitioner was finally allowed to upload his papers to NYSCEF, to commence proceedings for the matter of Williams v. DFS; et.al.; (see exhibit D)
- 16) The petitioner uploaded an affirm that was part of his CPLR 1101 application, into the NYSCEF system, under the “No Fee Authorization Letter” category option, within the NYSCEF system (See Exhibit E; and law memo para. (VII) below)
- 17) And the other parts of his CPLR 1101 application the petitioner uploaded under the other new NYSCEF category options designated for “CPLR 1101” application (that was not present in 2023 year) (See exhibit d)
- 18) And thereafter, the petitioner filed the rest of his papers into most relevant categorized places made available to him by NYSCEF;
- 19) The NYSCEF, system accepted the Petitioner’s Williams v. DFS, upload for process (see exhibit d)

20) The main papers that underlie the petitioner's Williams v. DFS, commencing papers consisted of inter alias, multiple U.C.C. claims and Consumer Credit (Non-Card) Transaction claims , thus making the proceeding a mandatory e filing case pursuant to N.Y. County Sup. Ct., (the courthouse that papers are being directed to).

(see: <https://iapps.courts.state.ny.us/nyscef/AuthorizeCaseType>)

21) All known respondents (named in the underlying case caption within the petitioner's submissions) are entities who are mandated by law to be represented by legal counsel, and thus must E-FILE in same litigation;

22) On 6/11/24, in response to the petitioner's above said NYSCEF uploading filing, NYSCEF emailed the petitioner back, stating it can not process Petitioner's CPLR 1101 application on NYSCEF; because NYSCEF users must go physically to court to file for CPLR 1101 relief. (See exhibit A)

23) Thus on 6/12/24, the petitioner made 3rd application to NYS UCS.s emergency court in efforts to file the Williams v. DFS, papers with the courts (and made complaints to the other various NYS UCS offices and departments named in caption)(See Exhibit F)

24) I incorporate Exhibit F, word for word, facts, claims, laws, etc., in its whole entirety, herein to this very paragraph;

25) On 6/12/24, the emergency court responded to petitioner with another auto - reply, other than the auto-reply, the petitioner did not again hear anything back from NYS USC emergency court in respect to his above emergency filing (the other NYS UCS offices & depts stood silent, aside from one who disparagingly referred to petitioner's unequal access to courts complaint as a chain email).

26) Presently, NYSCEF, has the Petitioner's Williams v. DFS, matter on pending status, which deactivates the petitioner (NYSCEF user) from being able to make any additional submissions into the NYSCEF database directly for the Williams v. DFS, underlying matter.

27) Thus On 6/13/24/ Thus the petitioner attempted to submit his CPLR 1101 application via EDDS;

- 28) However, The New York County Supreme Court (EDDS), only permits quote - "The following case types are available for electronic document delivery. Letter Application To Convert to E-Filing; Send Document Internally; [and] Submitted Motion List"
- 29) When the petitioner utilized the EDDS, he was only given the Letter Application to Convert... option to submit.
- 30) Thus the Petitioner, made 2 submissions, via EDDS (a) Letter to Convert... on court form, and (b) Letter to Convert, with CPLR 1101 application (et.al.) attached to it as proof of Noticing; (see exhibit G)
- 31) Thereafter on 6/14/24, the petitioner followed up his EDDS submission, by calling 25 Beaver st, NY, NY; it stated to the petitioner that his submitted papers were not a Letter a letter to convert;
- 32) Thus 6/14/24, immediately after that call, the petitioner emailed all his papers to Pro Se office (via SFC-HelpCenterNY@nycourts.gov) requesting that under the circumstances that it (pro se office) kindly present his

CPLR 1101 application and its supporting papers before a Judge for Judicial review;

33) However, to the present date the Pro Se office has been unresponsive to the Petitioner's 6/14/24, email request ;

34) Thus from late 6/15/24 to the present date the Petitioner has been constant on drawing these instant papers.

35) The Petitioner searched throughout the NYS UCS, and its counties thereof, for court fees schedules, and found no fees posted for making & filing a CPLR 1101 application.

36) Furthermore CPLR 1101 statute clearly indicates that CPLR 1101 application will be accepted for filing and assigned an index number "with out cost" ("granted freely") see CPLR 1101 & CVR 10 below for quotes) prior to and before it is presented to a judge for decision on what fee amount may or may not need to be paid.

37) It is well established within jurisprudence law that income discriminated persons (indigencies, etc) are a protected class when it comes to the civil liberty of access to the courts (petition the government) see exhibit f, and fact 25 i.d.; which the petitioner incorporates too herein this para.)

- 38) Furthermore since race and disabilities have both (individually) been shown & proven to play factors and roles in income iniquities & disparities, any discriminative tool that relies on lack of income as an apparatus or deciding factor to deny or exclude low income persons access from public governmental services, could easily be perceived as covert, clandestine, and collateral discriminations that will likely have adverse impacts on other protected classes.
- 39) The respondents made a policy that indigent applicants can not utilize the NYS UCS electronic filing system.
- 40) Respondents have created and enforced a policy that denied the petitioner access to an avenue to the courts
- 41) The said avenue is an access to a governmental public service
- 42) Respondents have created and enforced a policy that denied indigent litigants equal access to an avenue to the courts

- 43) Respondents have created inconsistent policies that confuse and abridge the petitioner's rights to equal access to an avenue to the courts (e.g. NYSCEF's letter of Auth filing provision: do CPLR 1101 applicants file a CPLR 1101 affirm (see law memo (VII) below) ? or a letter of Auth (see law memo (IX) below, and endnote #1) ? Or does NYSCEF not accept CPLR 1101 application via electronic filing at all (see exhibit A, NYSCEF's CPLR 1101 emails denials attached)? Or are Suffolk litigants allowed to file CPLR 1101 Affirm as no fee letter auth, but Harlem litigants are not (Geographical discrimination (see: juxtaposed exhibits A & E; law memo (VII) and NYSCEF's CPLR 1101 emails denials attached)?
- 44) Respondents' tacit approvals of NYS UCS' denying the Petitioner equal access to an electronic avenue to the courts in this matter has & is abridging his right, and equal protection, to petition the government (access the courts) via electronic means during his times of qualified CPLR 1101 status, disability status, and/or symptomatic covid courthouse barred status;

45) All just said above, below & attached are in violation of citations of authorities cited in same attached and below :

“These restrictions unfairly hinder practitioners and unrepresented litigants in certain geographic areas of the state. The lack of e-filing in the lower criminal and civil courts has an outsize impact on the poorest and most under-resourced court users. It also prevents those living in rural areas from benefiting from the time and cost savings that e-filing provides.”

(XII) New York State Unified Court System
NYSCEF - FAQ

1. What is the electronic filing system?

The New York State Courts Electronic Filing System (NYSCEF) is a means of filing and serving legal documents electronically with various courts, including the Surrogate's Court, Supreme Court and the Court of Claims.

<https://iappscontent.courts.state.ny.us/NYSCEF/live/faq.htm#:~:text=The%20New%20York%20State%20Courts,and%20the%20Court%20of%20Claims.>

(XIII) Part 202 - Uniform Civil Rules for the Supreme Court and the County Court

Most rules pertaining to electronic filing could be found within 22 NYCRR Part 202

(XIV) UCS Electronic Document Delivery System (EDDS)

In response to the COVID-19 public health emergency and the expansion of “virtual” court operations, the Unified Court System has initiated a new program to transmit digitized documents (in pdf format) to UCS courts, County Clerks, and other court-related offices around the State, commencing on May 4, 2020.

Q: What is EDDS?

The Electronic Document Delivery System (“EDDS”) allows users, in a transaction commenced at a UCS web portal, to (1) enter basic information about a matter; (2) upload one or more pdf documents; and (3) send those documents electronically to a court or clerk selected by the user. Upon receipt of the document(s) by the court, the sender will receive an email notification, together with a unique code that identifies the delivery.

(XV) 43 USC 1983

Every person who, under color of any statute, ordinance, regulation, custom, or usage, of any State or Territory or the District of Columbia, subjects, or causes to be subjected, any citizen of the United States or other person within the jurisdiction thereof to the deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the Constitution and laws, shall be liable to the party injured in an action at law, suit in equity, or other proper proceeding for redress,...

(XVI) CASE IN POINT

Blossick v. MONROE COUNTY DSS, 6 Misc. 3d 621 - NY: Supreme Court, Monroe 2004

At Pg 623 - The petitioner here did everything necessary under the CPLR to bring his action in a timely fashion. He was prevented from doing so by the clerk's failure to understand and apply the intermeshed provisions of the CPLR as they apply to commencement, special proceedings, [NYSCEF], and the status of litigants without the resources to pay court fees. ...

The plaintiff may proceed while awaiting the determination of the poor person application. ...

The court must conclude that the Legislature did not intend to exclude [e filing]...from the provisions of article 11

PRESENT TO: Hon. Edwina G. Richardson
Deputy Chief Administrative Judge for Justice Initiatives

NYS SUPREME COURT: emergency@nycourts.gov

-----X

IN THE MATTER OF
JOMO WILLIAMS., PETITIONER

EMERGENCY

-----X

I, JOMO WILLIAMS, the petitioner, state the following,

Exhibit attached (that I incorporate herein these four corners) are:

- (a)NYSCEF administrative directives stating that it can not present my CPLR 1101 application for judicial considerations
- (b)Proof of NYSCEF, filing; The actual CPLR 1101, application filed with NYSCEF (et.al. papers)

FACTS IN SUPPORT EX PARTE TRO/INJUNCTION

- 1) The Petitioner present this motion to Judge based solely on Judicial specialty (Access to the Court) Requesting for all relief he seeks herein and attached be reviewed and considered for immediate relief
- 2) This, nor the attached papers have not been assigned an index yet; nor been presented for judicial review; notwithstanding my countless filing and submissions efforts I made to the NYS UCS, constant since 6/6/2024 date.

- 3) This matter can not wait for tomorrow or later, as due to (a) the many unjust denials of the stated below have & are wrongfully subjecting my litigation efforts to several statute of limitations and deadline defaults & objections; as well as infringing upon respondents' (named in attached papers) rights to same.
- 4) This is Writ of Mandamus TRO/Injunction application requesting that this court compel NYSCEF, to present all the attached papers, I filed with it, before a Judge for review.
- 5) This is a Writ of Prohibitions, requesting the NYS UCS, be ceased from continually denying me and my litigation efforts access to courts.
- 6) Due to disabilities, illness, and other hardships I describe in all attached, I am not able to make it down to the court to make physical filing.
- 7) I have been working on the instant paper for the last 14 and half hours, and counting.
- 8) For reasons I state below and attached I am being unlawfully denied access to courts by all the NYS UCS' court departments and offices I grieved to from 6/6/2024 to present date.

FACTS IN SUPPORT OF SEVERANCE

- 9) The Petitioner makes a motion requesting severance of claims for convenience, to avoid prejudice and unnecessary confusion.
- 10) From 6/6/24 et. seq., petitioner has been facing much adversity and access to court issues in his efforts to file the underlying case.
- 11) Thus his papers submissions gradually stray away from his main legal claims and steered to the ancillary issues that are preventing him from filing and serving papers; which are denial of court access issues, and other issues unrelated to original underlying matter.
- 12) The only way the access to the courts denials and issues mentioned above, relate to the underlying matter is (a) Statutory of limits, or deadline objection are raised in the underlying matter, (b) proof of emotional distress, harm, and other injuries: in underlying papers the petitioner did raise how the unfair cause for litigation was harming him, wrongfully imprisoning him for months to draw papers, and adversely affecting him in other ways, (c) the relief that he seek to gain access to the proper tools so he could access the courts to fairly present his claims (tools: CPLR 1101 granted, and provisions to make CPLR 1101, application electronically ; Equal electronic filing & service access to courts; court assignment of counsel)

FACTS FOR ASSIGNMENT OF CIVIL COUNSEL

- 13) I request that the court review these papers and their attachments to test if they pass the colorable - meritorious test.
- 14) I inform this court that I have sent approx more than 3 emailings trying to retain counsel on contingency for the attached matter, and was not able to.
- 15) The complexity of the matter is very high in facts, number of parties, relevance laws and authorities, filing and service, unfair litigations, access denials, and in many other ways.
- 16) Due to said disability, hours in this litigation cause me to fall behind in all my other matters, present sickness, et.al. adversities I am not able to effectively litigate this matter myself.

FACTS FOR UNEQUAL ACCESS TO COURTS

- 17) Below is a law memo, citing relevant laws to this application; some with relevant fact to relate to instant matter; I must close this in hopes to transmit before the 9 am deadline.

LAW MEMO

N.Y. CPLR 603 Section 603 - Severance and separate trials

1-4:4 Ex Parte Motions

An ex parte motion normally should be heard by the assigned judge or, if none has been assigned, in the court where the action is pending.³⁷ However, CPLR 2212(b) provides that an ex parte motion may be made “to a justice out of court in any county of the state.” In theory, the movant can approach any judge in any 34. CPLR 511(b), discussed in Chapter 7, § 7-1:2. 35. Uniform Rule 202.8. 36. See Eric Dash, Weekend Legal Frenzy Between Citigroup and Wells Fargo for Wachovia, N.Y. Times, Oct. 5, 2008. 37. Uniform Rule 202.8. NY_MPH-Forms_Ch01.indd 7 6/23/2021 10:53:52 PM Chapter 1 Introduction to Motion Practice 8 NEW YORK MOTION PRACTICE HANDBOOK county of New York for an ex parte order. Greater flexibility exists because the adversary has no right to be heard in an ex parte proceeding, and therefore is not inconvenienced if the motion—which may involve an emergency application—is heard in a court or locale other than the court where the action is pending, subject to the restriction that any ex parte relief ordered by the judge must issue within the territorial confines of New York State.³⁸

By giving the applicant the option to go to any judge in any county of the State of New York, CPLR 2212(b) invites forumshopping. Uniform Rule 202.7(e), however, limits that forumshopping opportunity by requiring that, if the motion is made in any court other than the one where the action is pending, the judge receiving the application should refer it back to the court where the action is pending, unless that judge determines that there are exigent circumstances that require an immediate ruling on the relief requested.³⁹

Courthouses are legally required to be fully and equally accessible to people with disabilities. Access to the courts is a fundamental right under the U.S. Constitution,⁷ and federal, state and local anti-discrimination laws require full and equal access to courts. These requirements apply to people with mobility impairments who come into contact with all areas of courthouses. Everyone is protected by these regulations, from employees of the court such as judges, court reporters, or court officers, to participants in litigation such as attorneys, jurors, and defendants, to observers from the general public. These requirements govern public areas of courthouses as well as the areas of the courthouse that are not open to the public, such as holding pens. Federal laws cover courthouses. Title II of the ADA covers state and local governments, referred to as “public entities,” and includes all programs, activities, and services provided or operated by State and local governments.⁸ As the Supreme Court held in Tennessee v. Lane, 541 U.S. 509, 534 (2004), the ADA covers state and local courthouses.⁹ Entities providing courthouse services, programs or operations that receive federal funding are also covered by Section. 504 of the Rehabilitation Act.¹⁰

As the U.S. Supreme Court observed in Tennessee v. Lane, the “unequal treatment of disabled persons in the administration of justice has a long history.” 541 U.S. 509, 531 (2004)

NYS UCS PROMOTES A ‘DIGITAL DIVIDED’ JUSTICE GAP

On one scale NYS’ Lady Justice speaks out rhetoric within her’s “2D Technology, the Digital Divide, and Racial and Language Justice” online slides (See:

to show her efforts to seek answers and repair the Digital Divide within the access to the courts path; but on the other scale in this matter, the NYSCEF bridge, which has potential to lessen the Justice GAP in the Digital Divide by connecting bridges, she instead blockade and obstruct the entrance lane from those who are subjected to the unequal access, from getting onto NYSCEF bridge.

In this litigation matter, I have expressed loud and cleared in my paper submissions how i was facing great adversities, and denials to access to the courts due to existing disabilities, aggravations to disabilities due to coerced exertions brought on by litigation need, financial hardships by the facts of the litigation matter, inability to pay exorbitant costs for litigations, et. al., adversities. So did the NYS USC, grant any of my requests in efforts to assist access of the court. No it did totally the opposite, NYS UCS departments who I reach out to that supposed to specialize on said issue, were totally unresponsive; The NYSCEF system that NYS UCS boast to all lessen litigation cost, and very convenient to do with no traveling, seems in this instant matter was not made to be lost costly & convenient for indigent & disabled litigants to enjoy.

NYS UCS provides governmental electronic 'access to court' services to the public via NYSCEF. However, it only permits those who could afford it access to commence action on NYSCEF, while denying those who apply for CPLR 1101 fee waiver, no access to commence action (Income discrimination).

Many come knocking on the doors of justice (NYS UCS) for protections from various income discrimination (e.g.: discrimination based on lawful source of income. see infra).

But how can lady justice rule on these income discrimination matters in a non hypocritical manner, when she herself practices, in her own backyard, income discrimination in providing her governmental access to her courts; by selectively picking and choosing access based on income?

The blatant written denial of equal access to court to commence actions on NYSCEF, is in violation of our 1st and 14th amends of the U.S. Const. Rights; Civil Rights Acts; 42 USC 1983; et. al. laws.

The topic of discriminative access to courts, denials based on different class groups (female; illiterate; and indigency(et. al.) were all brought up in inter alias, Bound v Smith, Bounds v. Smith, 430 U.S. 817 (1977):

At pg 821 (Women class denied equal access to courts):

It found that the library plan denied women prisoners the same access rights as men to research facilities. Since there was no justification for this discrimination, the Court of Appeals ordered it eliminated.

At pg 825 (Illiterate class denied equal access to courts):

In Johnson and Wolff v. McDonnell, supra, the issue was whether the access rights of ignorant and illiterate inmates were violated without adequate justification. Since these inmates were unable to present their own claims in writing to the courts, we held that their "constitutional right to help,"

Johnson v. Avery, supra at 393 U. S. 502 (WHITE, J., dissenting), required at least allowing assistance from their literate fellows.

... And in Johnson, although the petitioner originally requested lawbooks, see 33 U.S. at 33 U. S. 484, the Court did not reach the question, as it invalidated the regulation because of its effect on illiterate inmates.

At pg 822 (Indigent class denied equal access to courts):

Thus, in order to prevent "effectively foreclosed access," indigent prisoners must be allowed to file appeals and habeas corpus petitions without payment of docket fees.

Burns v. Ohio, 360 U. S. 252, 360 U. S. 257 (1959); Smith v. Bennett, 365 U. S. 708 (1961).

At pg 834 (Indigent Class)

similarly, an indigent defendant's right under the Sixth Amendment places upon the State the affirmative duty to provide him with counsel for trials which may result in deprivation of his liberty, Argersinger v. Hamlin, 407 U.S. 25 (1972)

At pg 834 (Prisoner Class):

finally, constitutional principles of due process and equal protection form the basis for the requirement that States expend resources in support of a convicted defendant's right to appeal. See Douglas v. California, supra; Griffin v. Illinois, supra.

Source of Income Discrimination

What is discrimination based on lawful source of income?

Discrimination based on lawful source of income is the illegal practice by landlords, owners, and real estate brokers of refusing to rent to current or prospective tenants seeking to pay for housing with housing assistance vouchers, subsidies, or other forms of public assistance.

What is discrimination based on lawful source of income?

Discrimination based on lawful source of income is the illegal practice by state and local courthouses, Entities providing courthouse services, programs or operations of refusing ACCESS TO THE COURTS, to litigants or prospective litigants seeking to gain equal access to courts with statutory fees waiver, provisions, orders, vouchers, subsidies, or other forms of public assistance; that, once established, these avenues must be kept free of unreasoned distinctions that can only impede open and equal access to the courts.

The NYS USC , states its price for Brick and Mortar litigant to file papers to commence action are at particular price fees or waiver fee pursuant to CPLR 1101;

NYS USC , states its price for E Filing litigant to file papers to commence action are too at particular price fees or waiver fee pursuant to CPLR 1101;

(Note: last year I did not see a CPLR 1101 option on NYSCEF, at all when I was informed CPLR 1101 application must be done at brick & mortar court

(not on NYSCEF); however now in the year of 2024 the option to select CPLR 1101, motion is present on NYSEF, but still being denied to consideration via NYSCEF)

WASHINGTON—The Legal Services Corporation (LSC) released a far-reaching new report on the crisis in civil legal aid, “The Justice Gap: The Unmet Civil Legal Needs of Low-income Americans,” at a public forum in Washington yesterday.

This is LSC’s fourth Justice Gap study that documents the volume of civil legal needs faced by low-income Americans, assesses the extent to which they seek and receive help, and measures the shortfall between their civil legal needs and the resources available to address these needs. The deficit between resources and need is called the “justice gap.”

The new study reveals that the justice gap is vast. Low-income Americans received no or inadequate legal help for a staggering 92% of all the civil legal problems that impacted them substantially.

These problems are widespread, with 74% of low-income households experiencing at least one in the past year, and 39% experiencing five or more.

How Rising Income Inequality Threatens
Access to the Legal System

AUTHOR Robert H. Frank

<https://www.amacad.org/publication/how-rising-income-inequality-threatens-access-legal-system>

But many people lack the income necessary to pay for legal interventions against unjust treatment, preventing them from meeting basic needs, like protection against financial fraud and abusive relationships. Growing income inequality has made this justice gap worse by reducing public funds available for legal aid in real terms, while also making it more difficult for low-income people to make ends meet.

Wherefore I request the grant the petitioner all relief he seeks herein and in attached, et. al. reliefs it deems just and fit.

I affirm this 12 day of June, 2024 under the penalties of perjury under the laws of New York, which may include a fine or imprisonment, that the foregoing is true, and I understand that this document may be filed in an action or proceeding in a court of law.

IN A SPECIAL PROCEEDING
HYBRID
CPLR art. 78; UCC;
AND CPLR 3001

AFFIRM IN SUPPORT
PETITION FOR CPLR1101

I, Jomo Williams, the above named petitioner, state following:

1) All known named respondents in the above case caption are big major entities and conglomerates that must be represented in court by legal counsel.

2) Counsels without exemptions must file via NYSCEF in matters

3) In 2023 (yr) The Petitioner's CPLR 1101, application was denied and deleted by NYS UCS; reason given was that CPLR 1101 Applications are not permitted to be filed via NYSCEF (see attached Tuesday, June 27, 2023 at 10:13 AM EDT, dated email from NYS UCS to Petitioner).

4) Also the petitioner has been ill, and displaying symptoms that barred him from entering the court house (see attached TRO appl.).

5) Thus on 6/6/24 Petitioner made applications to

Emergency@nycourts.gov, and also to: ADA@nycourts.gov;

ig@nycourts.gov; cc-nyef@nycourts.gov ; newyorkef@courts.state.ny.us;

edds@nycourts.gov; nyscef@nycourts.gov; for guidance and relief from court access obstructions & denials, to address the CPLR 1101 and court barred issues, that the petitioner was facing (see attached).

6) To date the petitioner received no guidance or relief he sought above.

7) If any statute of limitations passed in this matter (notwithstanding the petitioners' diligence and efforts) caused by litigant's (hopeful temporary) incapacities and barring from entering courthouse; law office failures;

NYSCEF's technical failures & discriminations that refuse to accept CPLR 1101 applications for filing; no guidance and provisions made in respect & response to Petitioner's 6/6/24, et.seq applications to NYS UCS; and other denials and obstructions to court access; the petitioner request be extended or tolled.

8) The petitioner had transmitted his ex parte applications, complaints of fraud and abuse (et.al. papers) via email communications , upon all known parties in effort to notice all parties of interest.

9) None of the private entities or conglomerates in this matter had within 24 hours of service, provided the petitioner with any electronic confirmation or acknowledgement in this matter (or under their own policies to address consumers' abuse/fraud complaints) that all above (and attached) said notices had been effectuated.

10) The petitioner request in the attached petition for CPLR 1101, relief that papers be separated for filing in efforts to reduce costs in serving hard copies if ordered by court;

11) The instant matter of fraud, abuse, and deceptions, have brought unjust financial hardship; and oppression upon the Petitioner;

12) The petitioner has hundreds of legal documents made in this instant litigation matter that he already emailed to respondents;

13) Lemonlaw.com said it was approx. 400 papers, I had emailed; and approx. 15 known parties are named in caption (plus uncounted unknown parties); thus $400 \times 15 = 6000$ papers, at 25 cents a copy, $6000 \times .25 =$

$1500 in copy costs cost alone; and additionally service process agent cost to serve same 6000 papers could range from $100 - $200 per party; thus 15 parties X $100/$200 = $1500/$3000 for service process; thus totally $3000 to $4500, to copy and serve papers upon respondents (way beyond petitioner's budget).

14) The NYS CT Rules , distinguish commencing papers and subsequent papers , and how the cost of the two can be served via hard copy and electronically.

15) Also allowing the CPLR 1101, petitioner to serve & file all his papers will be congruent, harmonious, and coincide with NYS UCS's initiatives, rules, and its Report of the Chief Administrative Judge, to the Legislature, the Governor, and the Chief Judge of the State of New York on Electronic Filing, in the New York State Courts (excerpts in below law memo).

16) I refute and object to NYS USC's, reference of Petitioner's diligent efforts to notice, serve, and file all pursuant to law as an "Chain letter"

17) The statute CPLR 1101, is derogatory and offensive and needs modification; it seems that in a field or industry that demands a reputation for being highly eloquent and beyond average intelligent, would had long ago reworded that statute (unless it intended to keep it offensive); the statute matters well read "Poor Trailer trash Relief"; the statute for that relief could be articulated more eloquently, as everyone that apply for it is not “poor”, it just the price and cost for justice is so high”; maybe spin the name off the “Affordable Care Act”, like the “Affordable Justice Act”.? CPLR 1101, needs to be sanitized and modernized, not by just painting it facade with a new coat of paint, but also by demolishing it and building a whole new structure from the bottom up from scratch that effectively work from the inside out (e.g.: legal aid services are too overworked and underpaid with impossible caseloads to be truly effective; Since 2004 (yr) I long advocated and petition our 3 branches of government (countless times) to grant, to all needing, electronic access to the courts to reduce the cost for court access, and too the corruptions that obstruct justice (mail interferences, refusals to give reject filing receipt, documents thefts from court files (stealing justice); as well as to mandated a Civil Gideon provision or program}; CPLR 1101, is a prime candidate for Eastern Washington Congresswoman Cathy McMorris Rodgers (WA-05), to put on her list to support her “Word Matters Act”; no one should have to be insulted repeatedly and reminded of their unfortunate conditions & status to gain court access by having judges and court administrators shouting out loud from the top of their lungs “POOR PERSON!!!” , “Here another poor person application for you”, etc.,

LAW MEMO

CPLR 321 (a)

Appearance in person or by attorney. A party, other than one specified in section 1201 of this chapter, may prosecute or defend a civil action in person or by attorney, except that a corporation or voluntary association shall appear by attorney...

202.5-bb (b)(3) Electronic Filing in Supreme Ct; Mandatory Program.

A party served by electronic means shall, within 24 hours of service, provide the serving party or attorney with an electronic confirmation that the service has been effected.

CPLR 321 (c) Incapacitated

(c) Death, removal or disability of attorney. If an attorney dies, becomes physically or mentally incapacitated, or is removed, suspended or otherwise becomes disabled at any time before judgment, no further proceeding shall be taken in the action against the party for whom he appeared, without leave of the court, until thirty days after notice to appoint another attorney has been served upon that party either personally or in such manner as the court directs.

Uniform Civil Rules For The Supreme Court & The County Court,

PART 202.5-b (i) Technical Failures

(i) Technical Failures. The NYSCEF site shall be considered to be subject to a technical failure on a given day if the site is unable to accept filings or provide access to filed documents continuously or intermittently over the course of any period of time greater than one hour after 12:00 noon of that day. Notice of all such technical failures shall be provided on the site. When e-filing is hindered by a technical failure, a party may file with the appropriate clerk and serve in hard copy. With the exception of deadlines that by law cannot be extended, the time for filing of any document that is delayed due to technical failure of the site shall be extended for one day for each day on which such failure occurs, unless otherwise ordered by the court. In the event an attorney or party shall file and serve documents in hard copy pursuant to this paragraph, each such document shall include the notice required by paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of this section, and the filer shall file those documents with the NYSCEF site within three business days after restoration of normal operations at that site.

New York Consolidated Laws, Civil Practice Law and Rules - CVP § 2005. Excusable delay or default

Upon an application satisfying the requirements of subdivision (d) of section 3012 or subdivision (a) of rule 5015, the court shall not, as a matter of law, be precluded from exercising its discretion in the interests of justice to excuse delay or default resulting from law office failure.

CPLR 2103 (D)

Filing. If a paper cannot be served by any of the methods specified in subdivisions (b) and (c), service may be made by filing the paper as if it were a paper required to be filed.

ELECTRONIC FILING

2018 Report of the Chief Administrative Judge to the Legislature, the Governor, and the Chief Judge of the State of New York

Convenience. A case can be commenced and subsequent documents can be filed with the court and served on opposing parties via NYSCEF from any place with Internet access at any time on any day, even when the courthouse is closed. E-filing makes case files accessible online to counsel of record at any time and anywhere and allows counsel immediate access to newly-filed papers.

Efficiency and Productivity. E-filing streamlines the mechanics of litigation. The system provides immediate e-mail notification and delivery of all filings, including court orders, judgments, and decisions, which are available online. In addition, the system automatically serves papers on all participating parties and thereby relieves attorneys and litigants of this burden.

Cost. E-filing offers significant cost savings to attorneys, litigants, County Clerks and the courts. For attorneys and litigants, it eliminates the cost of serving hard-copy papers on opposing parties. For attorneys, the courts, and County Clerks, it sharply reduces record storage and retrieval costs.

Environment. E-filing is a green initiative that not only saves vast quantities of paper each year but also sharply reduces the need to travel for the purpose of serving, filing, or retrieving papers. E-filing is one of the most successful projects, and certainly one of the most important, ever undertaken by the New York State Unified Court System (“UCS”). E-filing is transforming very much for the better the way attorneys conduct litigation and the way the courts and County Clerk offices operate. More transformation is on the horizon.

Cost Savings

Other commentators spoke of the many opportunities for cost savings that e-filing offers, including the elimination of the burden and cost of serving papers on opposing parties, reduced need to travel to a courthouse to file papers, and reduced document storage and retrieval costs. Among such comments are the following:

“Electronic filing has saved time and expense for both clerk staff and our clients, and has dramatically increased accessibility to records by the public. Continued expansion of electronically filed record types will help grow those benefits.”

Hon. Adam J. Bello, County Clerk, Monroe County

Environmental Impact

A number of commentators emphasized the “obvious environmental benefits of e-filing,”²⁵ as a result of a reduction in the paper consumed by litigation and the reduced need to travel for the purpose of filing and serving papers. Among the comments about e-filing as a “green” initiative are the following:

“Speaking as a small law firm user, [e-filing] has truly made our operations run more efficiently. . . .[A]nd our carbon footprint has been reduced....”

CHAIN LETTER DEFINED

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

A chain letter is a message that attempts to convince the recipient to make a number of copies and pass them on to a certain number of recipients. The "chain" is an exponentially growing pyramid (a tree graph) that cannot be sustained indefinitely.

Common methods used in chain letters include emotionally manipulative stories, get-rich-quick pyramid schemes, and the exploitation of superstition to threaten the recipient. Originally, chain letters were letters sent by mail; today, chain letters are often sent electronically via email, social network sites, and text messages.

McMorris Rodgers, Pocan Introduce Words Matter Act to Eliminate Derogatory Language from U.S. Code

“This bill just makes sense,” said Pocan. “Federal law should reflect the time in which we live and not include harmful words or slurs. The Words Matter Act will modernize our laws, and remove offensive language from the U.S. Code. I thank my colleagues from both sides of the aisle for joining this effort to update our laws in a manner that is respectful of every American. I look forward to this bill’s immediate passage so we can retire this language once and for all.”

Cathy previously supported and helped pass Rosa's Law through the House of Representatives, which struck "mental retardation" from federal law when President Obama signed it in 2010. Unfortunately, it did not remove the equally offensive term "mentally retarded," which this bill will do to help bring federal law into the 21st Century.

Governor Kathy Hochul Legislation (S.6744/A.7981) & (S.1522/A.1296)

Governor Kathy Hochul today signed legislation to protect the rights of students in New York by eliminating a sexist and racist term from certain sections of education law. Legislation (S.6744/A.7981) is intended to address the stigma and historical racial bias of being labeled 'incorrigible' by removing the term from reference in education law.

Legislation S.1522/A.1296 Replaces the Phrases 'Feminine Hygiene Products' and 'Sanitary Napkins' with 'Menstrual Products'

Assemblymember Karines Reyes said,

"Unfortunately, many of our state's laws are still riddled with implicit bias against the very people that we are trying to help or protect.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/White_trash

The use of the term provides middle- and upper-class whites a means of distancing themselves from the poverty and powerlessness of poor whites, who cannot enjoy those privileges, as well as a way to disown their perceived behavior.

Socioeconomic Status and Classism in Language

Pratt Institute Libraries

Those who grew up in or currently live in places with few resources understand that words that describe socioeconomic status influence the way a person or their community is viewed and how they view themselves. Using language that maintains the dignity of individuals and communities and not laying blame on populations is pivotal. Language that talks down to individuals from lower socioeconomic backgrounds perpetuates classism.

(APA, 2019a; Lott & Bullock, 2007).

Terms to Avoid	Suggested Alternatives	Comments
The poor low-class people poor people	People whose incomes are below the federal poverty threshold	Many people find the terms “low-class” and “poor” pejorative.
	People who self-reported incomes were in the lowest income bracket	Use person-first language instead.

		Define income brackets and levels, if possible.
Inner city, ghetto	Under-resourced	Avoid terms that describe people who come from urban environments/cities negatively, as it assumes these environments are not good places to live.
Working poor	Hardworking, working hard to make ends meet	“Working poor” has negative associations with it and blames low-income people on themselves.
The hungry	Food insecurity, food poverty, and hunger	Describe their lack of access to food, rather than defining people by their traits.

Report of the Advisory Committee on Civil Practice to the Chief Administrative Judge of the Courts of the State of New York January 2024

. Amending the Motion for “Poor Persons Relief” to Motion for Fee Waiver (CPLR 1101) This is one in a series of measures being introduced at the request of the Chief Administrative Judge upon the recommendation of the Advisory Committee on Civil Practice. This measure would amend CPLR 1101 to eliminate the title of motion for permission to proceed as a poor person and redesignate this provision as a motion for fee waiver. The designation of individuals with insufficient means to prosecute or defend a legal action as “poor persons” is a highly outdated, pejorative, and often inaccurate legal term. This measure recommends amending the title of CPLR 1101 to clearly and accurately reflect the purpose this provision, which is making a motion to waive costs, fees and expenses. Furthermore, it is recommended that the classification property calculated in determining fee waiver status, in addition to income and assets, is clarified as real property owned by the moving party.

Permanent Commission on Access to Justice

The Permanent Commission also has ongoing responsibility to study, analyze and develop recommendations on all aspects of civil legal services for low-income New Yorkers; to issue recommendations providing for improved and increased access; and to collaborate on access to justice issues, including expanded pro bono services and help for unrepresented litigants.

N.Y. Comp. Codes R. & Regs. Tit. 22 § 51.1

(e) The Commission shall issue annual reports to the Chief Judge containing its findings and recommendations. The Commission may also issue additional reports, hold conferences, and perform such further and additional functions as may be deemed appropriate and necessary to fulfill its mandate to help assure adequate legal assistance in civil legal proceedings.

Wherefore the petitioner requests that this court grant him all relief state in Affirmation for this petition; in all attached papers; and any other relief that this court deems is just and fit.

I affirm this 10 day of jUNE, 2024, under the penalties of perjury under the laws of New York, which may include a fine or imprisonment, that the foregoing is true, and I understand that this document may be filed in an action or proceeding in a court of law.
